Appeal Told By Knowland After Talk

President Is Against Jury Trial Amendment

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower appealed to Republican senators through GOP leader William F. Knowland today to unite against a jury trial amendment to the civil rights bill.

Knowland reported Eisenhower's attitude to a closed Republican conference after he had breakfasted with the President.

The California senator read an Eisenhower statement of July 16 and announced that the chief executive's position is "precisely the same" now as it was then.

IN THE STATEMENT Eisenhower urged that the bill include a right to vote provision and said "jury trial should not be interposed in contempt of court cases."

The administration bill, already passed by the House, would authorize the government to seek injunctions against conspiracies to deprive persons of the right to vote. Violators would be subject to contempt of court penalties without trial by jury.

After one jolting defeat on an amendment eliminating broad civil rights guarantees, the administration is fighting Democratic sponsored amendments to assure a jury trial in criminal contempt cases under the right to vote provision.

SOUTHERN OPPONENTS of the bill agreed at a caucus today to back the pending jury trial amendment sponsored by Sen. Joseph C. O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.) even though it does not go as far as they would like.

Sen. Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.), leader of the Dixie bloc, warned, however, that the group would "use every means at our command" and "resort to every weapon in the arsenal" if the jury trial proposal fails.

O'Mahoney's amendment would provide jury trials in all cases involving criminal contempt but not in cases of civil contempt.

Knowland told reporters the GOP senators are "overwhelmingly against" jury trial amendments as presented. Asked if they were more solidly opposed than on the earlier vote this week, he replied, "by far."

Coroner's Inquest Ordered Into Woman's Death

A coroner's inquest was ordered today in the Wednesday traffic death of Mrs. Laura Gorman, 67-year-old Joshua Tree real estate saleswoman.

Mrs. Gorman, of Mountain View Circle, was fatally injured when an auto in which she was a passenger collided with a truck at Commercial and Center Streets in Joshua Tree.

She died of internal injuries at Ince Memorial Hospital in Twenty-nine Palms a few hours after the crash. The California Highway Patrol reported no injuries to the driver of the car, Mrs. Nellie Harlan, of Joshua Tree, or the trucker, Lawrence C. Grice, of Hidden Valley.

SACRAMENTO (AP) — An explosion shook the Nimbus plant of the Aerojet General Corporation early today, killing one person and injuring two.

WAYWARD TOWEL RETURNS HOME AFTER TRIP EAST

A wayward towel that somehow managed to flit 3,000 miles from Palm Springs to a New York hotel was back on its linen closet shelf at Dezi Arnaz' Western Hills Hotel today.

But the case of the prodigal towel cloth will always be an unsolved mystery to Western Hills Manager Frank Bogert.

It started when a frequent Palm Springs area visitor, Ed LaVeconte, of San Francisco, found a dirty towel on the bath room floor of his room at New York's Normandie Hotel.

The towel carried the name of Western Hills Hotel.

The Normandie manager was unable to explain its presence, since the room had been cleaned before LaVeconte checked in. Still puzzled, LaVeconte had the towel laundered and sent it back to his friend Bogert.

How it wound up in the Normandie bath room—or, for that matter, how it even got to New York—is a mystery to Bogert, who wonders where the traveling towel will turn up next.

Teamsters Plan Boycott Of Meeting

AFL-CIO Group To Go Ahead With Corruption Check

WASHINGTON (AP) — Teamsters Union leader will boycott an AFL-CIO hearing next week on charges of corruption in the giant 1,500,000-member trucking union, a spokesman disclosed today.

Al J. Hayes, chairman of the AFL-CIO Ethical Practices Committee, advised the teamsters that he will proceed with the investigation even if its leaders do not appear.

THE TEAMSTERS' decision was disclosed as Vice President James R. Hoffa met with backers in Chicago in an apparent kickoff to a campaign to succeed Dave Beck in the union's $50,000-a-year presidency.

The expected boom for Hoffa and the snubbing of the Ethical Practices Committee raised doubts about the future of the teamsters in the union labor movement.

A teamsters' spokesman said the union's Executive Board had not met to consider a reply to the AFL-CIO's "bill of particulars," specific charges mainly involving Beck and Vice Presidents Frank Brewster of Seattle and Sidney Brennan of Minneapolis.

THE TEAMSTERS asked postponement of the hearing, set for next Thursday, until after Aug. 5. Its Executive Board meets then for the first time since the specific charges were filed last May at an AFL-CIO hearing.

The spokesman said the board has not had a chance to consider its reply to the AFL-CIO allegations. The spokesman also said that five teamsters leaders, including Brewster and Hoffa, will be in San Francisco Thursday to consider charges in the union constitution as members of the Constitutional Committee.

House Group Buries Dam Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Reclamation Subcommittee voted 19 to 2 today to bar further consideration this year of proposals for a federal dam in Hells Canyon.

The full Interior Committee killed one Hells Canyon bill Wednesday. Today's action dealt with identical legislation not disposed of then.

Ammunition Ship Blaze Brought Under Control

NEW YORK (UP) — An electrical fire broke out in the Navy ammunition ship Mauna Loa today outside New York Harbor but was put out within a few hours, the Coast Guard reported.

The 5,450 ton vessel, carrying 3,500 tons of ammunition and with a crew of 220 aboard, was bound for Earle, N.J., where the Navy maintains an ammunition dump.

The Navy said the fire broke out at 7:20 a.m. p.d.t. in the engine room due to electrical failure. It was extinguished shortly before noon by members of the crew.

There were no injuries aboard ship, the Navy reported.

When the fire was contained, three tugs took the 459-foot Mauna Loa in tow and began pulling her to Gravesend Bay in New York Harbor.

The captain reported that the fire was confined entirely to the engine room.

The ship had left the Brooklyn Navy Yard for the New Jersey dump site less than an hour before the fire was discovered.

Two destroyer escorts, four fire fighting ships, two Coast Guard cutters and a New York City Fire Department boat were ordered to the scene immediately after the Mauna Loa's radio crackled "fire aboard."

They maintained their vigil in the immediate area as a precautionary measure, even after the fire was extinguished.

Village Sales Tax Receipts Hit New High

Palm Springs ended its busiest retail sales year June 30 when records showed that sales and use tax receipts bounded to a record $296,828.

The fiscal 1956-57 total reflected an unprecedented year of retail prosperity, even considering the use tax which went into effect for the first time last November 1.

Although 20 per cent of the tax receipts counted since November included the new use levy, the total tax yield was a substantial margin above the 1955-56 receipts of $245,354.

A breakdown of the last year's receipts, compiled by Shelby V. Langford, city director of finance, listed May as the busiest month. The May total was $48,154.

Dulles to Visit With Diefenbaker

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State John Foster Dulles flew to Canada today for a weekend get-acquainted visit with John G. Diefenbaker, its new prime minister.

TRUMAN SAYS BROWNELL NO GOOD. WON'T LET HIM SIGN

INDEPENDENCE, Mo. (AP) — Former President Harry S. Truman said today that Attorney General Herbert Brownell Jr. is "no good" because among other things, he won't let him autograph dollar bills any more.

"That attorney general would love to put me in jail," Truman told Lon Gentry, architect for the Truman Library Building, where Truman has his offices. The statement came after Gentry asked the former president to autograph a dollar bill for a friend.

"I used to order those signed," Truman said, "but I've had to quit putting my name on them. It's against the law and that damned attorney general would just love to put me in jail."

While in the White House, Truman often autographed bills for friends. Defacing U. S. currency violates federal law.

Truman added that he probably knew more about the law than did the attorney general. Asked if he was joshing about Brownell, Truman replied, "No, he is no good."

"Go ahead and print it," Truman added, "it's the truth."

27 Inches Of Rain Falls In 24 Hours

Town of 60,000 Given Name of 'City of the Dead'

TOKYO (AP) — A deluge of 27 inches of rain in less than 24 hours hit Kyushu Island with catastrophic force today, causing floods and landslides. The dead and missing were believed in the thousands.

Official police figures said there were 157 persons confirmed dead and 249 missing. The figures were expected to rise sharply when communications are restored.

Japanese press reports from the scene said the death toll may run as high as 3,000.

POLICE LISTED 47,998 persons belonging to 9,662 families as "affected" by the floods — their homes washed away or wrecked. Police reported 1,031 houses damaged, 256 washed away and 29,117 flooded.

The worst hit were the cities of Ishahaya, with a population of 60,000, and Omura, a city of half that size, on Omura Bay on the west coast of Kyushu and some 10 miles from atom-bombed Nagasaki. Kyushu is Japan's southernmost main island.

The Mainichi newspaper correspondent at Nagasaki called Ishahaya a "city of the dead" and said police estimated 2,000 to 3,000 killed there. The newspaper Yomiuri said 3,000 were drowned in the two cities.

THE KYODO NEWS Service reported from Ishahaya today that "large numbers of persons" were still clinging to rooftops clamoring for help and that Japanese ground troops sent on rescue missions could only look on helplessly across the swirling waters.

Dozens of landslides were reported in the mountainous area around Nagasaki and the U. S. Navy said 100 persons were missing in a landslide between Nagasaki and Sasebo and that 1,500 persons were "cut off." A landslide in Tensui buried 50 more persons and these too were feared dead.

U.S. military installations apparently were in no danger.

Metzdorf to Head Hotel Convention

Dewey Metzdorf, operator of the Oasis Hotel here, was today named chairman for the 46th annual convention of the California State Hotel Association in Palm Springs, Oct. 27 through 30.

Metzdorf is third vice president of the association and is a vice president of Western Hotels, Inc. The convention features a business program, designed to acquaint hotel operators and managers with the latest developments in hotel operations.

Late News Bulletins

CAIRO (UP) — A rickety two-story building collapsed on 200 wedding guests clapping and stamping out a beat for a belly dancer today killing scores of men, women and children. Police said 64 bodies had been recovered from the wreckage and the death toll may go up.

It seems that the Utah boys claim their shanks are shapelier.

Parking Meter Receipts Set Record for Year

Palm Springs parking meters swallowed enough nickles and dimes to add a record $38,242 to the city treasury during the past fiscal year, Shelby V. Langford, city finance director, said today.

The figure for the 1956-57 business year was almost $15,000 above the previous year, but the total included a change in meter rates to five cents per half-hour last November.

Even so, Langford reported, the city's meters kept time for more motorists than ever before.

Heaviest meter traffic of the year was April, when receipts leaped to $7,490. The month of June garnered only $1,927.

Meters in service reached a high of 590 in January and February, slacking off to a bare 306 this June and 247 last July and August.

Total receipts since parking meters were installed in March, 1949, were set at $186,540.

Battle of the Legs Started By Village, Salt Lake City

It's now strictly a "put-up-or-shut-up" show in the battle of the knees.

The question is whether Gus Blackman, Salt Lake City Chamber of Commerce manager has what it takes to match knees with Palm Springs C of C boss Jimmy Cooper.

COOPER AND Fred Ingram, Bank of America vice president, have forwarded a photo of their sun-tanned gams to Salt Lake City, challenging claims that Utah legs are shapelier.

It all started when Salt Lake City Tribune Columnist Dan Valentine capped a Village vacation by dashing off a news piece on the relative merits of legs, as displayed in Bermuda shorts.

Valentine, startled by the apparition of unabashed, short-clad Villagers, claimed that Blackman's legs were as attractive as Cooper's.

ADDING INSULT to his boast, he further added the grossly maligning accusation that the banker's legs sported varicose veins.

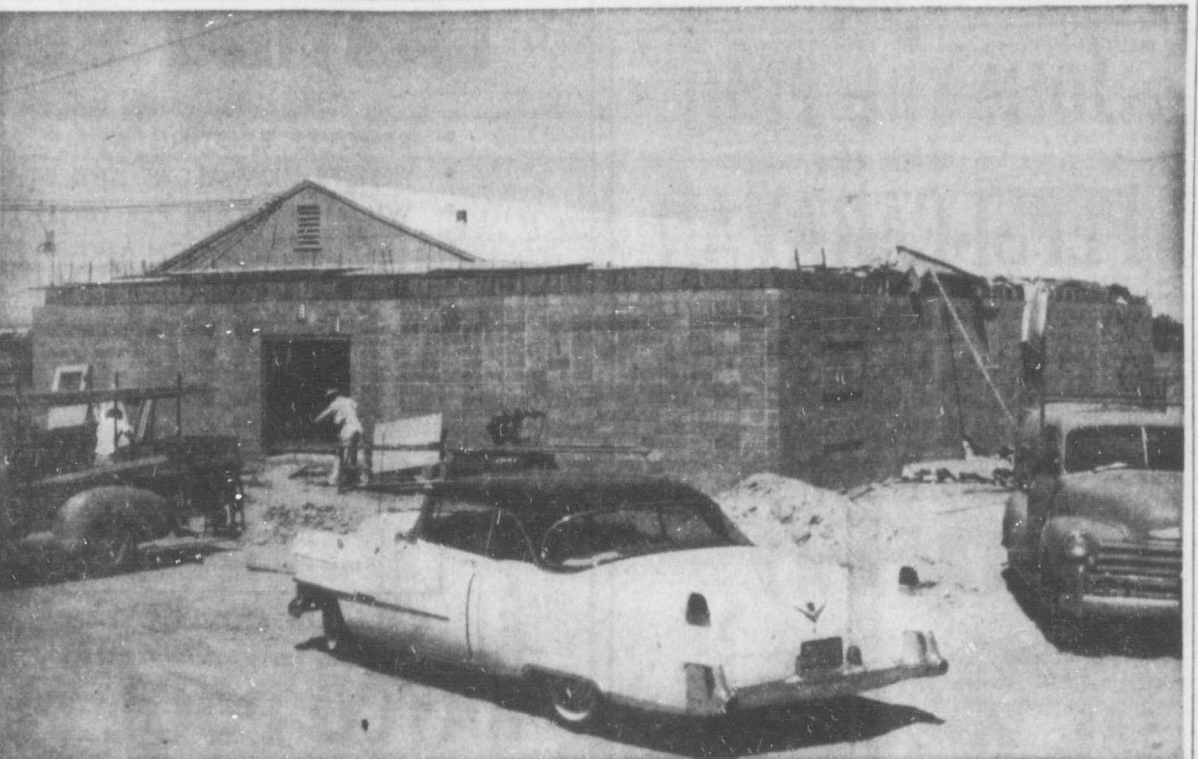

As evidence that Village legs are both attractive and lacking in varicose veins, Cooper and Ingram have forwarded their picture, adding the challenge: "Here are ours, where are yours?"

Kidnaping Report Is Unfounded, Boys Watch TV

Two small boys, Mike and Joseph Arnold, were found safe near their home at Palm Springs Trailer Park last night, after an alarm was sounded that the boys had been kidnaped.

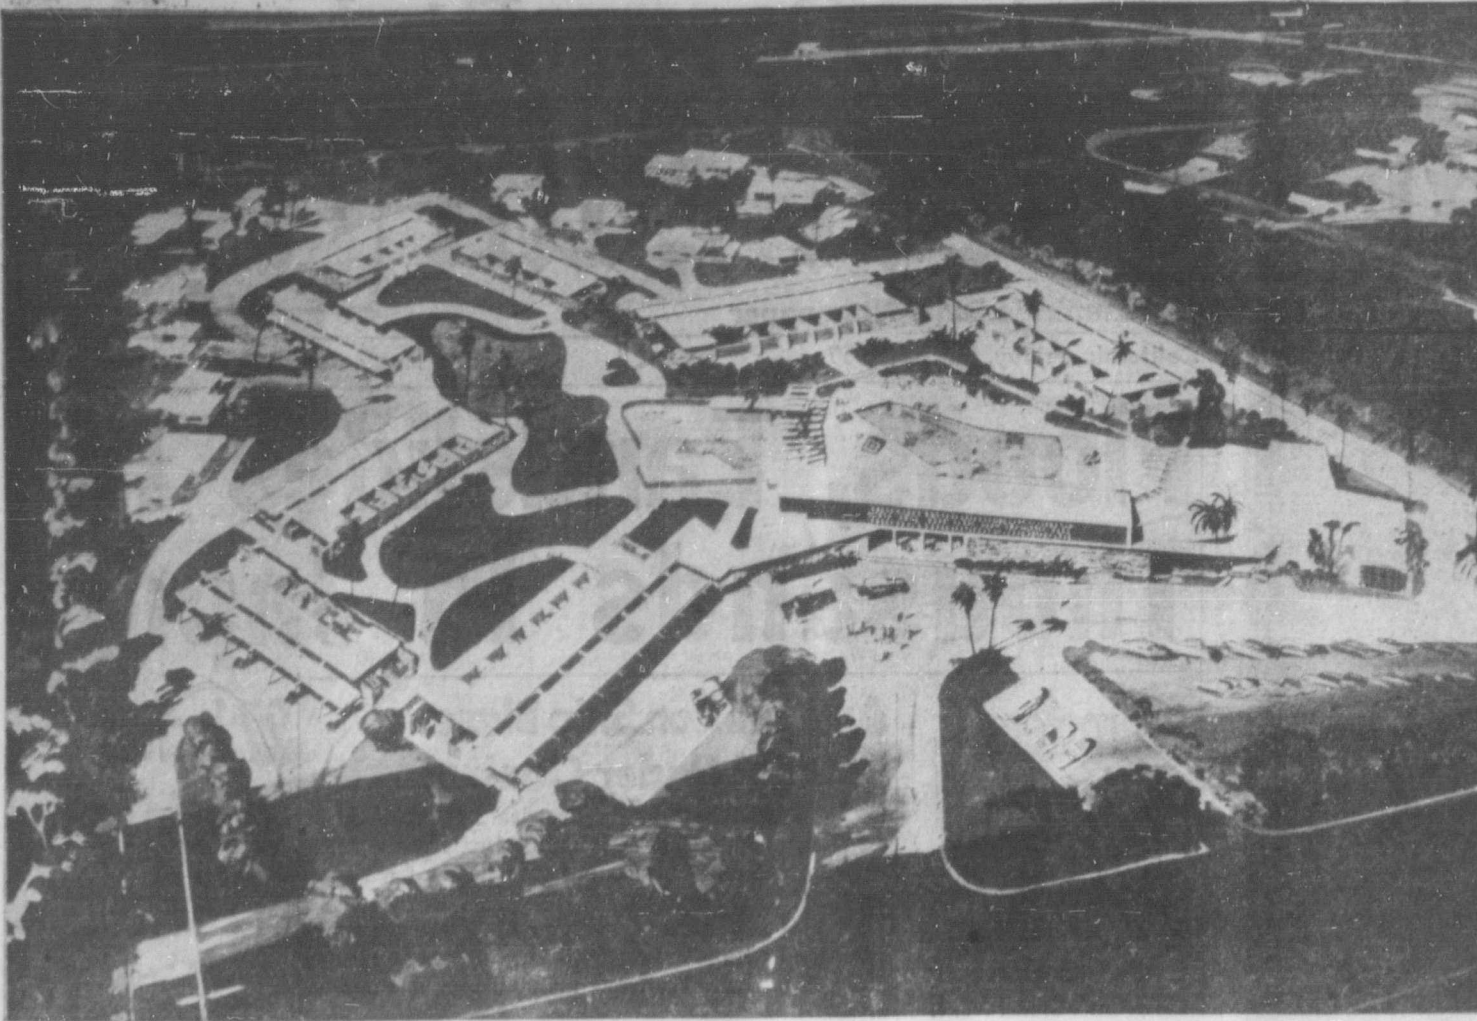

According to police, who listed the incident as "unfounded," the boys left Thrifty Drug Store where their mother works and walked to the Frosty Freeze on Indian Avenue. There, friends picked up the boys and took them to their home to watch television.

The boys, Mike, 8, and Joe, 6, were located within a matter of minutes. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Arnold.

PALM SPRINGS MASONIC LODGE, F&AM 693, is today undergoing some $11,000 worth of additions and improvements, which will give the lodge a complete new kitchen, dining room, rest rooms, and will allow the enlargement of the lodge room by use of sliding doors. Members of the lodge are donating their time to work on the building, and all the work that is presently done was completed within the past two weeks. Following the enlargement of the building the grounds will be landscaped and paved parking will be provided.

COPA DE ORO INN, located on what formerly was Hidden Springs Ranch Property, will be one of the big developments of the coming year. Planned for opening during this winter season, the $2.5 million hotel will be self-contained for all services. The approval of the final plans and the start of construction will be the beginning of a dream come true for Hidden Springs founder Charlie Doyle.

Scouts Come Down With Flu On Trip Home

(Editor's Note: David Michel, of Palm Springs, has been reporting on activities of local boys attending the Boy Scout Jamboree at Valley Forge. This is his last dispatch to the Desert Sun.)

The flu that spread like wildfire through the Jamboree Camp at Valley Forge finally caught up with us on the train en route to Riverside.

However, although the whole train was down with it, it was not serious — it just made us feel like the world was coming to an end.

The last day of the Jamboree, July 18, was spent in taking down the camp and getting ready to pull out the next day at the unearthy hour of 4 a.m.

WE HAD OUR last mass campfire meeting this final night. Each of the 50,000 boys was given a candle and at a given signal, all the candles were lit. The assembly arena was illuminated as if by daylight for several minutes.

The truck assigned to take our equipment to the railroad station arrived on schedule at 4 a.m. (yawn) and, after breakfast, we boarded buses, singing "California Here We Come."

We should have changed the song to New York, because we stayed at the Governor Clinton Hotel there the night of the 19th and toured the city the next day.

WE WENT TO Radio City Music Hall the night of the 19th and saw the Rockettes and the movie "Silk Stockings."

The next day started with a boat trip around Manhattan Island where we viewed such famous sights as the Statue of Liberty. After that, we went directly to the United Nations building and enjoyed a guided tour.

Next stop was the Empire State building and then we stopped for lunch before leaving for Niagara Falls.

WE SPENT A DAY at the falls, but our picnic lunch outdoors ended with a rainstorm.

We left the falls at 4 p. m. and started home. Our only scheduled stop was Omaha, Neb., on the 22nd.

The next three days aboard the train were spent in reading and games. On the afternoon of the 24th, we pulled into Riverside, and our 1957 Valley Forge Jamboree trip was at an end.

Young Newspaper Reporter Beaten, Doesn't Know Why

MURPHYSBORO, Ill. — A 19-year-old Tuesday night. However, the young, red-haired newspaper reporter, victim of an unmerciful beating, said today he could think of no reason for the "cowardly attack."

Robert McClure, 25, a reporter in the Murphysboro bureau of the Southern Illinoisian newspaper of Carbondale, Ill., was kicked and beaten into unconsciousness on Wednesday shortly after leaving a tavern.

He lay along US 51 for three and one-half hours before recovering consciousness and crawling to a farmhouse for aid. Authorities rushed him to Murphysboro Hospital where he was placed in an oxygen tent, and later released after treatment.

In recent months, McClure has written stories about the sale of liquor to minors, the mysterious tavern beating death of a Sparta, Ill., business and questionable road and bridge contracts.

The liquor-to-minor sale story involved the tavern McClure vis-

$2.5 Million Hotel Planned For 1000 Palms

Charlie Doyle, well-known owner of Hidden Springs Ranch, who for many years has dreamed of a fabulous development for the Thousand Palms area, may soon see his dream come true.

Word was received here today that Doyle has completed negotiations for the construction of a $2.5 million hotel. The project is expected to be completed during this season.

THE DEVELOPMENT is being undertaken by three men, Donald Mills of Malibu, Earl Hightower, Los Angeles attorney, and Paul Groesse, Hollywood architectural designer.

The hotel will be called the Copa De Oro Inn, and will contain 1200 rooms, two swimming pools, and, according to the developers, the final development will be contained on a 140 acre site. The hotel alone will cover 10 acres.

In future development, the organization calls for the construction of an 18-hole pitch and putt course, which in turn will be flanked with home sites.

ONE OF THE biggest attractions of the Copa De Oro will be the two-story cocktail lounge which will look into the side of one of the swimming pools below ground level, and out over the northern Coachella Valley above ground. The name of the lounge will be The Gold Cup.

According to Mills, Mike Ryan, Palm Springs contractor, will handle the construction of the project and may be helped by another firm.

There were more than seven site plans drawn for the Copa De Oro, before deciding on the final one.

Barn owls are valuable rat catchers but are seldom seen because they carry on their activities at night.

FOR THE HOMEMAKER who is harassed by inadequate home wiring and can't plug in her coffeemaker, toaster, electric skillet, roaster-oven, and fryer all at the same time, one manufacturer has introduced a new product to solve the problem and at the same time provide the convenience of automatic timing and pull-out extension cords that retract when not in use. Called the Automatic Appliance Center, it is a small unit only about a foot high and a foot wide, with an 11-inch depth that permits installation in standard kitchen cabinets. As shown here, the unit has been installed in a custom-built cabinet.

Electric Appliances Ease Family Cooking Problems

Any breakfast dish that is toasted or broiled can be done at the table while the guests sip their juice or eat their cereal.

If you have other table appliances, you can make the coffee, poach the eggs, make toast or waffles right at the table—provided that your wiring will take it.

However, toast can be made in the broiler, waffles reheated in it and eggs scrambled on the griddle. If you want hot broiled grapefruit for breakfast, you might follow it with a cereal course to allow time for the broiling of the meat and toast, and cooking the eggs.

ANY GOOD COOK book can give you recipes—here are only a few suggestions: Broiled fish may be done whole, split, steaked or filleted. Usually small whole fish such as trout or stand-dabs are preferred for breakfast. Simply brush with butter and broil, then serve with lemon wedges.

Broiled sausages are cooked as usual, they will need turning. Other breakfast meats are lamb chops, steak, ham, bacon, hash or chicken (party fare).

Broiled browned potatoes are made by chopping cold boiled potatoes, seasoning with salt, pepper and cream and broiling in a flat serving dish until hot and brown.

BROILED TOMATOES are sliced thick, dipped in flour, then in melted butter and broiled. Broiled fruits are good for breakfast: pineapple slices, bananas, canned peaches, apple slices or pears, chicken was being eaten.

Add Flowering Shrubs for August Bloom

Flowering shrubs, the everlasting joy of the home gardener, may be selected to lend late summer glamour to your home landscaping. Although most flowering shrubs bloom in spring and early summer, your local nurseryman has several which bloom in August, giving the garden planner an opportunity to enjoy almost perpetual color.

Shrubs are the basic part of foundation planting around a California home. If the gardener keeps his plan simple and chooses shrubs with regard to their full-grown size and appearance, the net result will be permanent care-free beauty.

THE CALIFORNIA Association of Nurserymen recommends the following late-blooming shrubs to all gardeners in the state, except those in the high mountainous regions.

A most popular late-blooming shrub is common myrtle (myrtus communis), a small leaved, rounded plant which is useful as a hedge as well as for foundation planting. This dark-green shrub produces white flowers in August and September. The blossoms are the forerunners of half-inch blueish-black berries.

Glossy abelia (a'ilia grandiflora), which is the most popular abelia, suitable for either sunny or shady areas, the glossy abelia grows to about four to six feet and, although it can be pruned to a compact shape, grows naturally in graceful arches. The fragrant flowers bloom from July to October.

TWO HYPERICUM species for late bloom, hypericum padulum henryi gives lovely golden yellow 2 inch flowers from July to October. This low, bushy, semi-deciduous shrub grows best in the warmer areas of California. In the high mountain regions it has a tendency to look shabby during cold winters. This hypericum is sun-loving, but isn't choosy about the soil in which it lives.

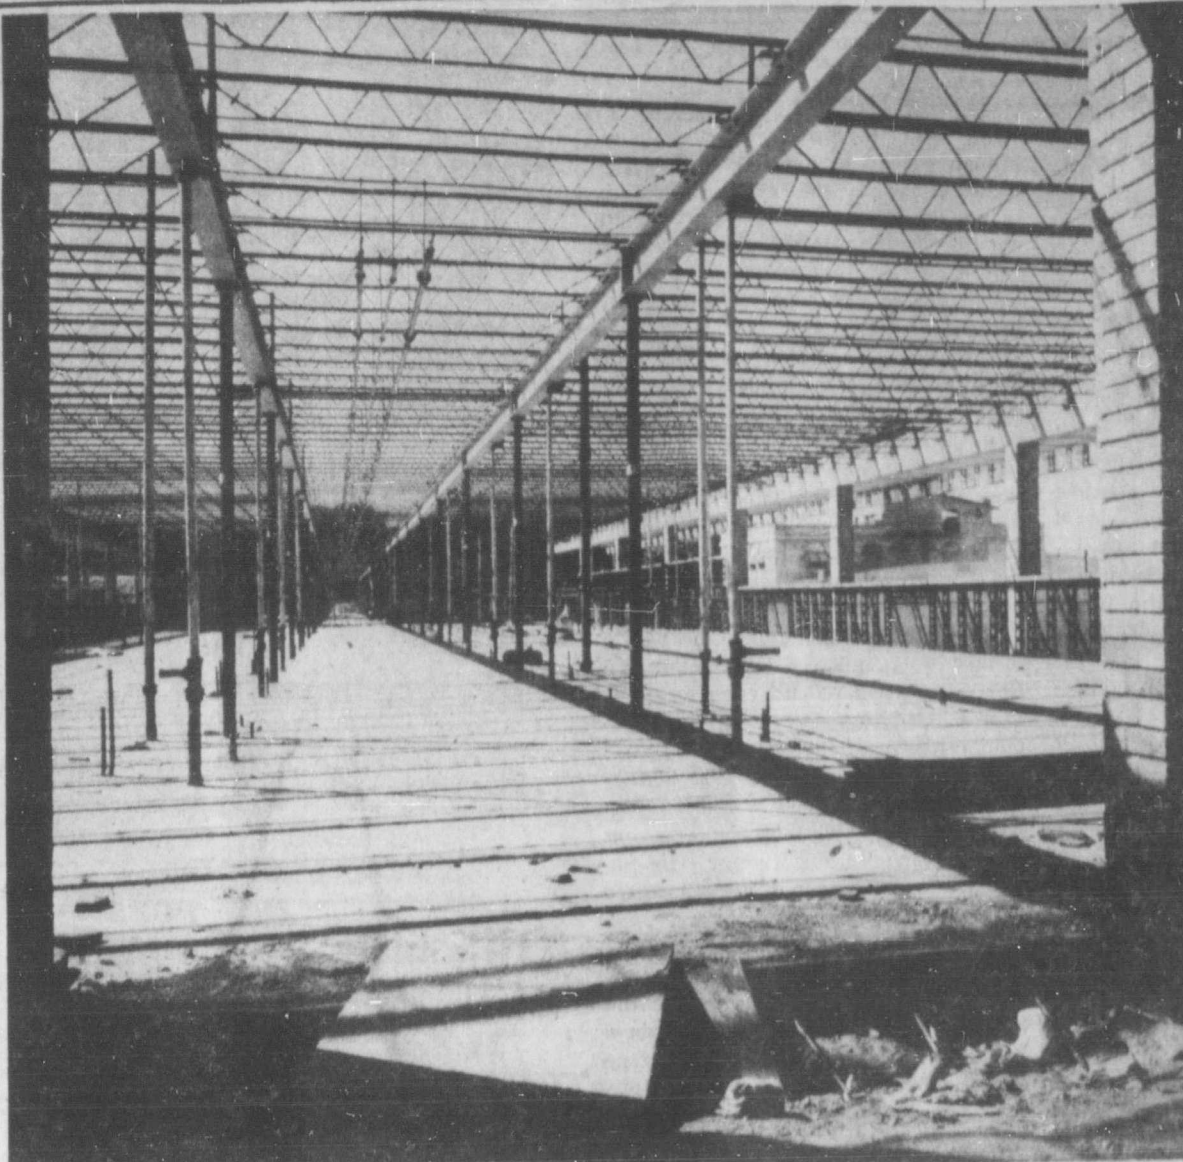

The other hypericum, h. moserianum, differs in size and time of bloom. Because it grows even lower and more bushy, it can be used as a foundation shrub. It blooms in July and August. Another very low grower (h. calycinum) is a popular ground cover. Grevillea rosemarinaefolia is a low, rambling shrub with almost continuous pretty red tassels blooms. Grevillea may be used when a hanging shrub is required, for example, dropping gracefully over the edge of a retaining wall.

Simplicity is a necessary prerequisite to successful garden planning. A few appropriate shrubs, planted in groups of three or four or more is far more effective than a wide variety of types in one location. The glossy abelia, for example, is a very pretty shrub, but its appearance is much improved by setting a group of these shrubs together.

Double Utility Of Bathroom

Whether your need calls for remodeling or an extra bath, there are basic points to consider in planning a "dream" bathroom.

1. Utilize all available space.
  2. Use imagination and color.
  3. Choose fixtures that are durable and easily maintained.
  4. Provide for ease of traffic in a limited space.
  5. Plan a maximum of open and concealed storage area.
- The bathroom has become such an important part of contemporary living that few families are satisfied with only a single facility. Surveys point out that many families, especially those with children, desire two and even three bathrooms.

PROGRESS ON THE NEW Riverside County Hospital is shown in this picture of the chronic disease and rehabilitation unit which will have a capacity of 120 beds. This wing is to be the first completed under the hospital rebuilding program which is being handled by Dr. Benjamin Goldberg, special consultant to the Riverside County Supervisors. This wing, according to Dr. Goldberg, will be completed by the end of the year, and the entire plant is to be completed in 15 months. The entire new building is being built of steel, concrete, brick and copper, and is completely fireproof.

Seal Out Dirt Where Floors Meet the Walks

Most homemakers want to keep their houses clean and neat with a minimum of effort. The simple design of today's average home interior, with dust-catching gingerbread decorations replaced by smooth surface, non-porous materials helps cut housework time, says the Construction Research Bureau, national clearing house for building information.

Washable paints and wallpapers, available in any desired color, draperies and curtains which can be frequently tubbed and re-hung immediately without ironing, and resilient flooring of smart, colorful vinyl which is easy to maintain, all help reduce the time spent in cleaning tasks.

BUT WOOD flooring and baseboards in any house, new or old, expand and contract with atmospheric changes. As a result, unsightly gaps frequently appear between the floor and molding at the bottom of wall baseboards.

ANY HOMEOWNER can eliminate these dirt-catching cracks simply and easily by installing vinyl wall base. This flexible wall base has a corrugated back and tapered top, and permanently seals the joint where floor meets walls. It is available 2 1/2 inches, 4 inches and 6 inches high, and its smooth surface never chips, breaks, cracks or warps.

Petunias, Marigolds, Zinnias Offer Early Blooms in Fall

Early fall-blooming annuals may be purchased in nursery flats now, to provide lovely flowers which will continue to blossom for many weeks. After planting, the home gardener will need only to water casually and harvest many beautiful cut flowers. This ability to thrive without attention makes annuals the favorites of novice gardeners.

Veteran gardeners, too, appreciate the annuals' yield of cut flowers, for they come at a time when other flowering plants are beginning to fade. The more often annuals are cut for indoor decoration, the more bounteous their crop of beauty.

IN CALIFORNIA, three of the most popular late-summer and early fall bloomers are petunias, marigolds and zinnias. All thrive best in full sun.

Petunias are commonly recognized in their familiar clumps, but certain varieties (balcony petunias) are suitable for trailing out of window boxes or off walls. Available in many shades of red and blue, the petunia has the unique advantage of being drought resistant, and is successfully grown in dryer areas without extra attention.

An outstanding feature of the Rest Room BLOOMFIELD, Conn. —(UP)—The new home office of the Connecticut General Life Insurance Co. includes a drab, soundproofed room, furnished only with plain chairs, for those employees wishing to escape from tensions and anxieties of work.

marigold is the long-lasting beauty of cut flowers. With proper care, cut marigolds retain full beauty for as long as two weeks. Marigolds are strongly scented, and range in color from yellow through velvety red. African Marigolds are available now in hybridized forms which resemble carnations, dahlias and chrysanthemums, and require little attention.

ZINNIA THRIVE in all sunny areas of California, and are especially suited for Central Valley and Southern California areas, taking well to hot weather. Popular varieties of zinnias are available with pom-pom as well as shaggy shaped flowers.

Zinnias offer a wide selection of sizes and come in all colors except green and true blue. They provide something to suit every preference, and many varieties may be effectively combined for contrasting or complementary color schemes. There are many popular dwarf varieties which grow to less than two feet and other varieties that reach three feet to provide the necessary gradation in size necessary for effective combinations.

Gardener's Checklist

1. Protect your garden hose and add years to its life. Use a hose reel or hanger.
2. If flies are a problem around your patio or barbecue area, regular use of the new fly baits will help control them.
3. Dichondra should be fertilized regularly. Liquid or organic fertilizer should be used.
4. Use a multi-purpose dust to control Diabrotica beetles and caterpillars.

SILENCING COURT CRITICS (Wall Street Journal)

In an address before the American Bar Association the other day, Senator Javits of New York pleaded with the lawyers to defend against criticism "the authority and effectiveness" of the United States Supreme Court.

The Senator warned that the Court "stands in jeopardy of a seriously adverse public reaction" because of some recent rulings involving Congressional authority, internal subversion and international affairs. Mr. Javits said that lawyers ought to back up the Court whether they agreed with the decisions or not.

That strikes us as a rather preposterous proposition. For the United States Supreme Court, while presently pretty much a law to itself, is after all composed of men who may make mistakes just as lawyers and Congressmen and other ordinary men may err.

And as matters stand now, Congress has the Constitutional power to limit Supreme Court jurisdiction, if Congress so wishes, to a more narrow area than the Court now possesses. And Congress can enact legislation to reverse Supreme Court rulings—and, indeed, has from time to time been invited by the Court to do so when the language of a statute restricts the Court to an interpretation which even the Court thinks is off the mark. It is idle to suggest that the Court is so supreme as to be above criticism when such powers exist.

Moreover, there is danger in the idea that no one should differ with the Court. For if people are prevented from speaking out when error is suspected or discovered, there is not very much chance that wrong can be righted. And if, as a matter of policy, it should become the practice for the executive branch and the legislative branch to remain silent no matter what the judicial branch decides or does, what then becomes of the present balance of powers in our Government? The Court would not then be the Supreme Court, but the Government; and the nine justices would not be judges but dictators in a judicial oligarchy.

Fortunately, not many lawyers will be disposed to accept admonishments about the dangers of criticism. On the same program with Senator Javits the retiring president of the Bar Association, while deploring "unbridled ranting" about Court decisions, himself accused the Supreme Court of exercising "superstate powers" when it ruled that a man could not be denied a license to practice law on the ground he was a former Communist. Subsequently, the Bar Association refused even to entertain a resolution decrying "contemptuous" criticism of the Supreme Court.

Nor do we for one moment believe that the Supreme Court would itself be happy with any rule that would prevent criticism about Court rulings. The Supreme Court does not always agree with the Supreme Court, as everyone saw in the issue of whether soldiers' wives must answer to military courts-martial when overseas. Last year the Supreme Court said, Yes. But 366 days later, on the same case, the Supreme Court said, No.

Is the Court to be immune from criticism of such judicial reasoning which, if it were right one time, was bound to be wrong the other?

Of course not. And for our part, we think the Supreme Court itself has laid out some pretty good guideposts concerning criticism of what it does and what it doesn't do. For as anyone who takes the trouble to read dissenting opinions can easily find out, there is no one more critical of a Supreme Court decision than one of the justices who happens to disagree with the majority.

HOLMES ALEXANDER:

The Shake That Awakened

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Public attention was drawn to the bill called Civil Rights, and a tremor ran through the country. Rather, it was a series of tremors.

In the press gallery and at the press table in the Senate dining room, the quaking seemed to result from suppressed mirth. Reporters had to hold their sides.

QUOTES

By UNITED PRESS

AUBURNDALE, Fla. — Retired Gen. James A. Van Fleet, former commander of the U.S. 8th Army, on foreign nations trying American servicemen in their courts: "We should not send our boys overseas unless foreign nations are willing to surrender a little bit of their sovereign rights by granting 100 per cent jurisdiction to the American forces of all American personnel."

WASHINGTON—Rep. Chet Holtfield (D-Calif.) on the role of the federal government in civil defense planning: "In effect, the high officials of our government are saving themselves and abandoning the people."

NEW YORK — Dr. Robert C. Hockett, associate director of the Tobacco Industry Research Committee, on the claim that benzopyrene resulting from cigarette smoke may have cancer-causing effects: "In its pure form, benzopyrene has never been shown to be cancer-causing to man, and it induces cancer only on certain types of laboratory animals."

NEW YORK — Attorney Ferdinand Pecora, defending Tommy Manville's younger sister, Lorraine, against charges she failed to mention undergoing a facelift and rejuvenation operation before she married a TV actor 30 years her junior: "When a young lady endeavors to keep herself young by medication, she cannot be guilty of any kind of misrepresentation."

WASHINGTON — Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson on farewell parties: "I never give farewell parties. I expect people to give them for me."

when they heard it contended that the cool political operator, Attorney General Herbert Brownell, had produced this bill from a heart filled with love of mankind.

TOO MANY of the scribes remembered Brownell as Thomas Dewey's bush-beating campaign manager who never missed a chance to round up a bloc-vote. It was the "Dewey crowd" who smeared the late Robert Taft with a "Thou Shalt Not Steal" slogan at the 1952 Republican convention. It was Brownell himself, showing fine bipartisan form, who clipped Harry Truman with the insinuation of housing a traitor in Harry Dexter White.

Neither Senator Taft nor ex-President Truman had much of a day in court, and this summary, court martial style, is expressed in the Attorney General's bill for abolishing trial-by-jury. The contrast between the humanitarian and authoritarian aspects set the press bleachers quaking with ha-ha's.

ANOTHER QUAKE occurred in the turn-of-story of Senator-bill-writer. Those of us in the writing business are always snapping at Congressional meat, but here it was reversed. Senator Russell opened the debate by charging that the press had done his cause a great wrong. Senator Eastland chided us, and Senator Fulbright solemnly appealed to us to tell the truth about the contents of this infernal machine.

Result? The big wheels of the N. Y. Times—Arthur Krock, Scotty Reston and Bill White—began to grind gunpowder for the Southern cause. The Washington Post found some merit in the attacks on the trial-by-injunction section. And on July 18th no less than the exalted liberalissimo, Telford Taylor, commenced chiding the N. Y. Times for printing erroneous interpretations in an editorial on the Civil Rights bill.

"THE EDITORIAL gives no reasons other than surprise and misunderstanding," says Taylor loftily, "to support the conclusion... the purpose of the bill has been plain enough from the outset."

Mirth and indignation have shaken the nation, but the princpal tremor I take to be of another sort entirely. To find its focus, we may go back to the middle of last June when the N. Y. City Council was entertaining a proposal for forced integration of races in the Manhattan apartment houses. One June 14th, the N. Y. dailies carried a paid advertisement signed by the Real Estate Boards of Brooklyn, the Bronx, New York, Staten Island, and Long Island, reading in part: "We abhor prejudice based on color and race and we abhor bigotry. We favor the present laws against discrimination in public housing, in employment, in theatres and restaurants. We believe New York City has given an example to the world of mutual respect and tolerance."

"But..." And this is the punch line! "But we strongly object to this wanton invasion of basic property rights." This is the shocker—property rights! Where they are threatened, the typical American in this businessman's national trembles with fury and alarm.

THEN ON MONDAY, July 15th, a famous news letter which may not be quoted in print (because exclusiveness is ITS private property) warned its readers to beware. The unquotable letter served notice that housing integration was the wave of the foreseeable future and gave the names of the cities where it could happen. I first heard about it when readers began calling their Senators. Was the Civil Rights bill an attack on private property? Was it? Was it?

If you're interested—and who isn't?—the Civil Rights bill is a social equalizer by Federal force. It means share-the-school, share-the-home, share-the-wealth, share-the-genes, not voluntarily but by edict, not individually but by goose-step and salute!

There is, however, much cause for rejoicing in what has taken place. The shivers that ran through the country as this smiling villain of a bill was unmasked is a cause for reassurance. An informed public opinion is what makes it impossible for the thimble-riggers to run much more than a side show. This is a time when they almost put on the main show, but laughter, anger and—this above all—this pinched nerve of the American pocketbook have served us well.

'Up and At 'Em—You're in Good Shape'

THIS SIDE of The Sun By Phat

Listen five minutes
And then you'll hear
Of detergents, smokes,
Car deals and beer.

Also razors, tooth pastes, beauty gimmicks and Hesperia.

SAW SOMETHING interesting in a television magazine the other day. The article described the TV producers code — not more than one minute of advertising to every five minutes of programming.

In other words, on a half hour show you should get 25 minutes of the program, five minutes of commercials. Do you?

Last week, as you recall, in the interest of science and statistics, I kept score on a two-hour movie. That was 120 minutes.

The picture was on 85 minutes, the commercials and word of coming attractions, 35. That's one to five?

SURE, somebody has to pay for our pleasure. After the final payment on the set, outside of possible cash payments, we get it for nothing.

Therefore, was interested in the current debate in Los Angeles and other big centers where closed circuit pay-TV is the big subject.

Palm Springs can sit back and brag again. We were four years ahead of Los Angeles. But I wonder what that's going to do to my Saturday noon pastime—watching the game of the week.

I KNEW it would happen. With the price of hair-cuts at two bucks a trim, someone would come up with a do-it-yourself gadget. Just like everybody got busy perfecting safety razors.

Sure enough, on TV the other day, was a film of a happy mother clipping and snipping the locks of two contented looking boys. And later, grooming her husband. With joyful chatter of what they were saving per annum.

THAT PICTURE of the two kids submitting quietly to the clippers wasn't true to life. Haven't you (meaning the male category of readers) ever been to a barber shop when a young youngster was being trimmed. Turnout is too mild a word.

Can remember when I took my first-born for his first hair-cut. He had scarcely enough hair to cut but he valued what he had. It took four barbers snipping as he wiggled by.

Before they got through there were two squad cars at the curb with police telling the crowd to move on.

COMES A CARD from a reader signing himself P. S. Booster. He tells me I am whistling in the dark when I say we are immune to smog here.

Haven't you every looked up Palm Canyon and seen how the smog comes drifting over the San Jacintos? Haven't you ever been out on the desert and looked back and seen our town smothered by the awful stuff? he asked.

It's serious, he added, and we must take action now.

Well, mentioned seeing a haze over the desert but said I didn't think it was smog. And until my eyes start smarting, I won't.

INEZ ROBB:

Read 'Em and Weep

This curmudgeon has just read some statistics that have set her blood pressure leaping through her S. Victor chapeau like Old Faithful. Read 'em for yourself and weep.

The National Health Education Committee, Inc., in a handbook just published, cites figures to prove that this great, fantastically rich nation of ours spends more than twice as much annually on chewing gum as it does on medical research!

The National Institute of Health received from Congress for the fiscal year of 1957 a total of $102,224,000 for research grants, fellowships and intramural research in the major killers or diseases that carry off young and old. Add to this, at most, another $18- or $20-million for research aided up by the voluntary health agencies that have to scratch for every cent they raise.

And then know that in 1955, the latest year for which these figures are available, American gum-chewers spent $282,360,000 for the cud that keeps their jaws wagging in the nearest approximation of perpetual motion known to man.

This figure of $282,360,000 accounts only for the across-the-counter expenditure for the stuff. It does not include the sum, at least equal in magnitude, spent on cleaning bills by innocent bystanders who accidentally sit or step on an abandoned quid.

Nor does it include the sums, probably a billion annually, spent for psychiatric help by those other innocent bystanders who have been driven off their rockers by fellow-workers who, in the gum sweepstakes, are snappers, poppers and-or wet-smackers.

Since the beginning of time, man has been slowly, surely and painfully drawing away from the animal kingdom in his determination to differentiate himself from it and prove he is a higher type critter.

Man just about had it made in his move away from the apes and toward the angels when chewing gum came on the market. He voluntarily set himself back several millennia when he acquired the habit of chewing a cud, a trait that has marked the cow as a lesser beast since time immemorial.

At least, the cow has an excuse. Nature made it a ruminant with a big, four-part economy-sized stomach that requires that extra, added chewing. But man has no such vindication. He imitates Elsie the Cow, Elmer the Bull, and Ferdinand the Florist for no good reason.

I doubt if any single American trait has given this nation a blacker eye or her citizens a more unfortunate reputation abroad than our addiction to gum-chewing. There is a thesis ripe for the plucking, by an aspiring Ph. D., in the harm that gum-chewing has visited upon United States' foreign relations and the derogatory prestige it has earned American citizens.

In many parts of the world "gum-chewing American tourist" is one word. And they don't mean it kindly! How could they? "The habit of chewing gum is perhaps peculiar to the United States," says the Encyclopedia Americana. "Peculiar" is the right word. We have parlayed a nervous habit into a degrading national trait.

Isn't it possible to break ourselves of this noxious habit, to organize for gum-chewers a compassionate group similar to Alcoholics Anonymous?

And perhaps, in the near future, to devote at least as much money to the support of medical research as to an insupportable habit?

Las Vegas 'Honeymoon'

LAS VEGAS — Danny Thomas came to the desert on his honeymoon and I came on his honeymoon with him.

Oh, lots and lots of people came along on his honeymoon. It promises to be the most widely attended honeymoon ever honeymooned.

Of course, it's for his TV show, which takes over the "I Love Lucy" spot on CBS in October. Purportedly, Danny comes to the Sands Hotel here for his honeymoon. He brings one of the essentials — his TV bride, pretty blond Marjorie Lord. To make it real homey, they haul along their children by previous marriages.

"Doesn't everybody?" says actor Les Tremayne.

So the chubby little son says, "Gee, it's gonna be a great honeymoon," and the teen-age daughter also thinks it's ducky.

It was only about 120 in the shade when they were filming this make believe. The director, Sheldon Leonard, was in shorts.

"Did you find a sponge?" Danny kept yelling to a make-up man. Then they would unlash Danny. The TV bride, Miss Lord, who's a San Franciscan, said anyway, she didn't have to wear a mink coat, which she usually does in some acting jobs this time of year.

Danny likes to talk dialect. He said to one spectator:

"Ve work like dis six day, 116 people, 120 in de shade — just so you can say, 'Dat show stinks.' Pass de beer."

Jack Benny, closing his fabulous three-week engagement at the Flamingo, gave a cocktail party starting at 2:15 a.m. I believe it's the latest starting cocktail party in history — but then, that's Las Vegas.

Martha Raye's been wearing a full length white mink coat. She loftily explains: "Green Stamps"

Showgirl Doty Harmony of the Tropicana, one of Elvis Presley's frequent dates, is a Greenpoint, Brooklyn, beauty who visited his parents in Memphis. She even got a leather jacket like his for the motorcycle riding.

"Elvis is a perfect gentleman," she assures me.

Concerning Elvis' fondness for bacon sandwiches as the main course, Doty told me, "If anybody eats steak at the table he has to get up and leave. It makes him sick."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL IN N.Y. Martha Raye admitted she'd had a heart attack a few months ago, despite denials by her mgr., Nick Condos; she added that Nick had had two slight attacks, too.

Thelma Ritter's out with a throat ailment, and Bibi Osterwald's subbing in "New Girl in Town" ... Joan Crawford and husband Al Steele missed a train to Chicago, so Steele chartered a huge airliner ... Jayne Mansfield's visiting her mother in Dallas ... "Visit to a Small Planet" repaid its backers in 20 weeks.

Sophie Tucker agreed to let a Denver specialist examine her ailing leg, but insists on finishing her Las Vegas engagement ... Jean Pierre Aumont and Marisa Pavan are enroute from Paris, so their first child can be born here ... Pretty Denise Dorn, formerly in "Holiday for Lovers," is helping publicize "Love in the Afternoon."

Perle Mesta's a frequent visitor to Billy Graham's meetings ... Pat Ward will remarry; he's a Canadian businessman ... Diosa Costello will audition for Lena Horne's "Jamaica" show ... Arthur Miller and MMonroe are negotiating for a home near Bethel, Conn. ... Frankie Laine's salary at a N.J. cafe: $42,000 for 11 days ... Jackie Cooper, nabbed for driving 125 miles an hour, is now insured by Lloyds of London, with an $800-a-year premium.

Funny sight in front of the Ed Sullivan TV theater: A woman giving away Steve Allen show tickets ... Bob Hope's new picture, "Paris Holiday," runs 2 1/2 hours — and is still being filmed. Producer Julie Styne bought a short story that he'll make into a movie, with Sammy Davis Jr. as the lead ... Ex-boxer Lou Nova will attend the soap box derby in Lima, Ohio, "I'm well-suited for the job," says Lou, "—I've used soap for years" ... When Jack Benny worked in Las Vegas the management, as a gag, installed a penny slot machine in the lobby.

EARL'S PEARLS ... If Adam came back to earth, about the only thing he'd recognize would be the jokes.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

MGM Grabs Ford

HOLLYWOOD — MGM grabbed Glenn Ford for the top spot in one of the studio's hottest new properties—James Jones' "Some Came Running" ... First Glenn will do "The Sheep Man" for Columbia. He asked for George Marshall to direct it. That's because Glenn has never forgotten that George gave Bill Holden and himself their first big break in "Texas."

Bek Nelson, that oddly-named chorine, bounced from small parts in "Pal Joey," "Operation Mad Ball" and "Cowboy" to a leading role in "Too Young" ... I had heard that Jack Lemmon ran up $300 in long-distance phone calls while locationing with "Cowboy" in Santa Fe, N. M. Jack fixed me with a blazing eye and said, "My family lives all over the map—and besides, I have many FRIENDS!"

HEDY LAMARR left the hospital following minor surgery. She cut her lip and cheek when she fell out of bed in her suite at the Beverly Hills Hotel and landed smack on top of her record player—as a result of which Hedy had to scam a guest on the Steve Allen show.

Miss Lamarr, incidentally, is just about set to star in a circus movie that Cubby Broccoli and Irving Allen will shoot in Europe ... I ran into Ruth Gordon in the commissary at Paramount and reminded her how she once stole an all-star production of "The Three Sisters" that played in Chicago a few years back from the other stars, including Katherine Cornell, Judith Anderson, Kirk Douglas, Edmund Gwenn, Gertrude Musgrave and Tom Powers. Ruth replied, "Thanks, but I DID have some help from the man who wrote it—Chekhov!"

CAUGHT A PREVIEW of "Silk Stockings" Outside of "Funny Face," it's the best musical in years: sharp, funny and hip ... Fred Astaire's show-stopper in this remake of Greta Garbo's "Ninotchka" is "The Ritz Rock-n-roll," and this dance routine is just what you'd imagine it to be from its title: rocknroll with top hat & cane.

As for Cyd Charisse, she's the best dancing doll we've ever had. Hers is a perfect characterization, and if Garbo had been called upon to dance in "Ninotchka" this, I'm sure, would have been the way she'd have done it.

More surprises, same picture: Peter Lorre, traditionally a villain, doing a funny song-&-dance routine—and Janis Paige, playing Hollywood's leading swimming star with a yen to go dramatic (Esther Williams?) Where has Janis been all these years?

Answer: On Broadway and on the road, learning a lot about acting.

RORY CALHOUN and Vic Orsatti finished shooting "The Hired Gun" on MGM on a very short shooting schedule and a very short budget: $285,000. Pretty good for a major studio, and less than some of TV's fancier specs cost. Explanation: It's their own independent production and Rory took a deferment rather than a straight salary.

Una O'Connor will quit acting after she finishes the movie version of "Witness for the Prosecution" because of a heart ailment ... Universal's "Man of a Thousand Faces," Lon Chaney's life story, is real Oscar stuff for Jimmy Cagney — again. When Jimmy turns on the villain spigot in recreating Chaney's roles in "The Hunchback of Notre Dame" and "The Miracle Man," it's enough to make Torquemada sob with envy.

Celia Lovsky, playing Chaney's mother, is great too. Her eyes fly over the screen like drunken birds and the rest of the actors in the picture have a terrible time trying to keep up with her.

TV TOPICS—Warner Bros. telecasted Bob Dix, Richard Dix's son, for the leading role in its new western series, "Colt 45" ... Ernie Kovacs hasn't had any TV offers for next season that interest him so he'll try his hand at directing a Broadway musical based on the nursery classic, "Solomon Grundy."

Jerry Colonna will play his first serious role on Climax on Aug. 1, in "The Giant Killer" ... Roy Rogers got a bid from Chevy for five shows this fall and winter but is checking his rodeo schedule before he says yes ... I guess the toughest break a TV announcer ever had was Bob Yeakel's. He did a long Oldsmobile commercial on Sunset Boulevard with the cameras facing the traffic. But not one single Oldsmobile rolled by during his stint.

ROBERT Q. LEWIS, his fans will be glad to know, comes off great in the Cary Grant-Deborah Kerr movie, "An Affair to Remember," in a satire on the "Person-to-Person"-type TV interview ... Several TV producers, in this neck of the woods are trying to get the rights to an old movie, "It Happened Tomorrow," so that they can make a teleseries out of it. It's about a man who knows everything that's going to happen because he gets hold of tomorrow's newspapers today.

The Frank Scullys, winter residents, are on a globe trotting sojourn and at the present time are in Oslo, Norway, where they have been for the past three weeks, dining, "skolling" and visiting many of Mrs. Scully's relatives, including her mother who celebrated her 89th birthday, July 16.

They also visited in Lillehammer where Mrs. Scully spent her childhood, and a guide of the restored village of old grass roofed houses recognized her though they had not met in 30 years.

The Scullys plan to visit Copenhagen and then fly to Rome to thank the Pope for the honor of including Scully in the Knights of St. Gregory the Great.

Then they will go to Assisi, and the French Riviera, a week or two in Paris, then to London and eventually home either by the Polar route or from Ireland or Scotland to New York, where Scully hopes to have a play going on Broadway this fall.

Herrick plans to leave soon for a short vacation in Mexico.

Cool and Nourishing

NEW YORK — Chilled avocado soup makes a cool, nourishing dish in hot weather. Melt 4 tablespoons butter. Blend in 4 tablespoons flour, 1 teaspoon salt and dash of pepper. Gradually add 4 cups milk, blending until smooth. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly until slightly thick. Chill well. Add 1 cup minced avocado and 1 tablespoon grated orange rind. Pour into chilled bowls and top each serving with a spoonful of sour cream. Sprinkle with paprika. Serves 4.

Ford Ceramic Sculpture Featured at Padua Hills

One of the outstanding features of Padua Hills Theatre's Silver Anniversary is an exhibition of ceramic sculpture by the distinguished Betty Davenport Ford, who last year received the $2,000 first prize for sculpture at the Los Angeles County Fair, a few weeks after having been awarded the $500 sculpture prize at the California State Fair at Sacramento.

Betty Ford, who graduated from Scripps, received her M. A. degree from Cranbrook Academy of Art in Michigan, and lives and works in the Padua Hills community. Ten of her sculptured pieces can be viewed at the theatre.

Los Novios, an hilariously funny comedy, is enjoying a very successful run which ends Aug. 3. Luis Abundiz and Conchita Galardo are Los Novios, the sweethearts who are celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary. Her coquettish cousin arrives to help celebrate the happy occasion and all kinds of fireworks ensue.

Joel Gracian plays a very spoiled nephew, Maria Abundiz does a very good portrait of an over understanding mother whose child can do no wrong, and altogether

MIRACLES are FEW and FAR Between!

THIS TIME Mrs. Moretti got her savings back — BUT she never would have had a minute's worry if she had kept her MONEY IN THE BANK and her SECURITIES IN A SAFE DEPOSIT BOX.

In fact, the bank would have paid her a premium* for NOT hiding her money in the oven — enough probably to cover the cost of a Safe Deposit Box for her Stocks and Bonds.

Money Kept in a Savings Account and Valuables Kept in a Safe Deposit Box have 100% Protection!

'Miracle' Returns Widow's Money Burned in Error

MAPLEWOOD, N.J. — A widow who inadvertently burned her life savings in an oven found herself a wealthier and wiser woman today as the result of a Treasury Department "miracle."

Mrs. Marge Moretti and her son Alfred Jr., 11, took a bag full of ashes to Washington yesterday, the remains of more than $1,600 in cash, stocks and bonds which she had forgotten were hidden in the oven when she baked a cake last Sunday.

Mrs. Moretti said the Treasury Department soaked the burned remains and put them through a machine which separated the papers. Experts then identified $297 in cash, $47 more than Mrs. Moretti thought she had, and stocks and bonds worth $1,360.

The burned currency was replaced by new bills. The government bonds will be exchanged at the Bureau of Public Debt in Chicago and new stocks will be issued by a private company.

"This is Mrs. Moretti's miracle," the woman said as she held crisp new bills. The money was her savings from four years of hard work following the death of her husband.

TODAY'S SPORTS PARADE

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

NEW YORK — Tommy Jackson, billed in the fight marts as the "Hurricane," will prove along about 7:24 p.m. p.d. Monday night that he's not an ill wind.

In roughly the seventh round, the "Hurricane" will do Floyd Patterson a lot of good by blowing his chances at Floyd's heavy-weight championship.

Jackson, a man who hates chopped steak and likes hamburger, and you'll have to figure out that one yourself, by the seventh round should be up to his hips in canvas and up to his eyes in Salisbury steak.

ORDINARILY YOU wouldn't expect this bout to draw flies. The only thing Jackson, the Spartan from Sparta, Ga., has going for him is magnificent physical condition. It is no secret that he couldn't knock off your Easter bonnet with a baseball bat.

However, you can't beat the fact that this is the only heavy-weight championship fight available Monday night. Or, as far as that goes, for quite a few Monday nights.

There just aren't any legitimate heavyweight challengers around and so Patterson, willing or unwilling, is forced to start what may well be a "Bum of the Month" club a la Joe Louis. This certainly makes a good start.

YOU COULDN'T be criticized, actually, if you didn't know who really is the heavyweight champion of the world or if you entertained a suspicion that Patterson as of the moment doesn't rate with the all-time champions of the ring.

He won the vacant title from Archie Moore last November. In the succeeding eight months, Floyd has been sitting on the throne in solemn solitude waiting for somebody to come along and make a payday.

BUT DON'T OVERLOOK the fact that this is a fine fighting machine whose future greatness will be marred only by the fact that there was nobody around for him to fight. As the 5-1 choice, Patterson seems about as safe as government bonds. If he loses to Jackson, a man he beat with one hand a year ago, there conceivably could be a congressional investigation.

One thing this fight will prove is that there really is a Floyd Patterson. And Jackson, the gentle south wind billed as the "Hurricane," will prove to Floyd that, yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus.

Little Leaguers To Play Tonight

Little League action resumes tonight at the Polo Grounds with Junior Police meeting Hathaway-Buick Braves at 7 p. m. and the Cameron Stars playing the Boys Club at 8:30.

Parker Happy To Have Rote As Quarterback

DETROIT — Coach Buddy Parker of the Detroit Lions said today he was "happy" to have quarterback Tobin Rote, the key man in a six-player trade negotiated with the Green Bay Packers.

The Lions, who finished second in the Western Division of the National Football League last season with a 9-3 record, have two signal callers under tow. Bobby Layne and Jerry Reichow.

BUT LAYNE, a long-time veteran, has been plagued with a sore right shoulder for about three years and is nearing the end of his playing career. Reichow, a graduate of Iowa, was a rookie last year and saw only limited service.

TO OBTAIN ROTE and a second man, halfback Val Joe Walker, from the Packers, the Lions traded halfback Don McIlhenny, tackle Oliver Spencer, guard Jim Salsbury and tackle Norm Masters.

The deal was not officially announced but leaked out prematurely when the Lions notified Rote's family in Texas.

Shoehorn Needed as Five Teams Try for NL Lead

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer

Get out that shoe horn again because five clubs are all trying to squeeze into first place today. The Cardinals moved within a half-game of first place by beating Brooklyn, 3-2, Thursday night, and the Redlegs closed to within a game of the lead with a 9-1 victory over Pittsburgh.

Only one game separates the first four clubs — Milwaukee, St. Louis, Brooklyn and Cincinnati — with fifth-place Philadelphia climbing to within only 2½ games of the top as a result of a 5-3 decision over the Braves.

THE CARDS THREW a monkey wrench in Brooklyn's plans to take over the league lead when they beat Don Newcombe Thursday night for the first time in seven years at St. Louis.

Art Fowler of Cincinnati went the distance for the first time this year in checking the Pirates on seven hits. In addition, he drove in the Redlegs' first two runs with a bases-loaded single off Ronnie Kline, who lost his sixth straight game and 14th of the campaign.

ROBIN ROBERTS of the Phillies scored his first victory since

West Coast Fans Skip Early Celebrations

SAN FRANCISCO — The Giants may be coming to San Francisco and the Dodgers to Los Angeles — but West Coast fans aren't doing any premature celebrating.

All this talk about big league baseball finally arriving on the Pacific slope, is very interesting — but the fans have been through that before with bitter disappointment.

IT WAS ONLY 10 years ago that Paul Fagan purchased the San Francisco Seals with the idea of either getting the club into the majors or making the PCL a third major league.

Fagan got absolutely no cooperation in his plans and finally sold the club in bitter disillusion. The mayors of Los Angeles and San Francisco have been painting a beautiful picture of financial security, big attendances, huge stadiums, etc., to the owners of the Giants and the Dodgers — and they are overlooking a lot of the pitfalls that the average fan knows all about.

FOR INSTANCE: Horace Stoneham, president of the Giants, has been quoted as blaming horse racing in and around New York for the failing attendance in that city.

If Stoneham thinks he had horse racing trouble there, wait until he gets to California. There is horse racing 52 weeks of the year here — with huge attendances.

Johnson Signs

PHILADELPHIA — Light heavyweight contender Harold Johnson has signed to meet Wayne Bethea of New York in a 10-round bout at Convention Hall for the week of Aug. 26.

Sparked by Neal Green's blistering fast ball, the Desert Hot Springs Fireballs Wednesday night scorched the second place Mexican Colony, 5-0.

Catcher Charlie Black rapped out the game's only home run — a loner in the fifth inning.

The losing battery was Frank Prieto, pitching; and Vic Reyes behind the plate.

IN A GAME last night the Mexican Colony swept past the First Force Service Regiment team of Twentynine Palms at the Polo Grounds by a smashing score of 15-1.

The Colony put on a fine hitting exhibition and fielded well in the win. It was one of their most lopsided victories of the year.

Frank Prieto was the winning pitcher, scattering eight hits while striking out six. The Marines got their only run when J. C. Shelley lashed out a home run in the bottom of the seventh inning.

THE WINNERS got rolling in the second frame when they tallied six runs. They got three more in the third, four in the fifth and one each in the sixth and seventh.

Joe Luzano led the way with two doubles and almost every Mexican Colony player scored in the night's action.

The Marines are taking Laurie's Steak Ranch's place in the Desert Softball League for the remainder of the season.

Village Colts Hold League Leaders to Tie

The second place Palm Springs Elks Colt League team and the league leading Colton Bankers battled to an 8-8 tie in Colton last night before the game was called on account of darkness.

The local boys had won seven straight contests going into last night's game and have steadily advanced in the standings.

They play in Palm Springs this Saturday night at 8 p. m. at the Polo Grounds.

Miteff Favored To Take Julio Mederas Tonight

WASHINGTON — Alex Miteff, unbeaten young Argentine heavyweight, is favored at 3-1 to defeat Cuban Julio Mederos tonight for his 11th straight victory.

The 10-rounder at the new Capitol Arena will be televised and broadcast nationally by NBC at 7 p.m. p.d.t.

An impressive victory over 24-year-old Mederos might boost Miteff into the top 10 rankings; for the Cuban is an experienced opponent who met many "name" fighters in his six-year career.

CAB, FBI Take Charge of Plane Investigation

GEORGE AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — Civil Aeronautics Board officials and the FBI today took charge of an investigation into a mysterious explosion that ripped a large hole in the side of an airliner, hurtling a heavily-insured passenger 10,000 feet to his death.

The CAB planned to make an "inch by inch" search for powder marks in the shattered rear section of the Western airliner. At the same time searchers combed the desolate desert area in an attempt to find the body of the missing passenger, S. F. Binstock, 62, of Canoga Park, Calif.

FBI AGENTS ALSO stepped into the investigation to determine if the explosion might have been a suicide plot. The FBI disclosed that Binstock, who boarded the plane at Las Vegas, Nev., had taken out $125,000 in flight insurance Wednesday, naming his wife, Eva, as beneficiary.

The two-engine Convair made an emergency landing here following the explosion high over the California desert early Thursday. Twelve other passengers and a crew of three escaped injury.

"I THOUGHT someone had run into me," Western Airlines pilot Milton Shirk said. "I notified Los Angeles International Airport by radio that I was going to make an emergency landing at the Air Force base. We came in smoothly without any difficulty."

The explosion occurred at 10,000 feet and was centered in the lavatory of the airliner which had stopped at Las Vegas, Nev., 47 minutes earlier on a flight from Minneapolis to Los Angeles. Binstock boarded the plane in the pre-dawn hours at Las Vegas and passengers said he entered the tiny washroom shortly after takeoff.

Fire Damage Set at $400,000

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Fire swept through an industrial plant Thursday night and caused damage estimated at $400,000 before it was controlled by firemen of seven engine companies.

The blaze broke out at 11:30 p. m. in the front section of the Hollywood Heat Treating Co. Employees tried to curb the flames with extinguishers but gratefully gave way to firemen.

NADINE JANSEN and her combo are currently delighting crowds at Dave and Arthur Lyons' Palm House, with excellent music and entertainment.

Nadine Jansen Combo Is 'Terrific' at Palm House

By DON CABALLEROS

Rosemary Clooney, Nellie Lucher, Jack Fina, Sara Vaughn, Louie Armstrong and Harry James (to name a few) were at the Palm House last night. That is, so it seemed if you closed your eyes.

If you had your eyes open—and that's what happened to us—you saw Nadine Jansen and her two talented assistants dishing out some mighty danceable music and some extremely impressive entertainment.

MAYBE WE SHOULD say that this is a review of one of the best three-piece combos shows we old night-club patrons have seen in a long time. And clean, too. No dirty jokes. You can—and should—bring your Sunday girl—or wife. They will enjoy it.

Nadine herself—a tall, attractive brown-haired gal—is terrific. She does you find a pianist with the power, expression and rhythm—that Nadine showed us last night. But that's not all. Sometimes she plays her trumpet with her right hand while doing an impressive job on the piano with her left. In these routines she almost had us fooled. Her imitations of such artists as Louie Armstrong and Harry James were excellent.

JIMMY STEWART—in a shy, modest style—was most impressive on an electric guitar and a thing that sounds like a viol, but isn't. He also played banjo, and he can sing, too!

'The Eel' Fails To Slip Through Police Net Again

NEW YORK (AP) — George (The Eel) Larned, 32, who slipped through a Long Island dragnet a week ago, was shot and seriously wounded in a running gun battle with police today as he fled a New York restaurant holdup.

"I'm gonna die, I'm gonna die," he moaned as he lay in the emergency ward of Knickerbocker Hospital where he was taken after his capture.

Larned called repeatedly for his wife, who is being held as a material witness.

"Tell her I want her. I want her to come to see me before I die," Larned cried. "I love her."

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Democrats bitterly blamed President Eisenhower today for defeat of the $1,300,000,000 school construction bill.

House Republicans defended the President's role. But they admitted his failure to give strong support to the measure hurt its chances of passage.

The House killed the bill Thursday by a narrow 208-203 vote. Republicans said the close vote assured another attempt to pass the legislation next year. But Democrats said the measure is dead for a long time to come.

EVEN IN ADVANCE of House action there was no expectation the Senate would get around to the school bill this year, largely because of the long civil rights debate. Therefore, any final congressional showdown on school construction was not expected before next year in any case.

On a party basis 111 Republicans voted to kill the bill and 77 to keep it alive. Among Democrats 126 voted to keep it alive and 97 to kill it.

"I lay defeat of the bill squarely at the feet of the President," said Rep. Augustine B. Kelley (D-Pa.), chief sponsor of the compromise plan to have the federal government spend 300 million dollars a year for the next five years on classroom construction.

"THE GENERAL ordered the retreat," said Rep. Edith Green (D-Ore.).

The House before killing the measure added an amendment by Rep. Stuyvesant Wainwright (R-N.Y.) to refuse any of the funds to school districts with segregated schools. The vote was 136 to 105.

Rep. Cleveland M. Bailey (D-W. Va.), another leading supporter of the measure, said Eisenhower could have saved the bill by telephoning a dozen Republican members.

"He didn't do anything as far as I can determine," Bailey said, "although as late as Wednesday it was promised a letter or statement."

Rep. Samuel K. McConnell Jr. (R-Pa.), chief Republican backer of the bill and an Eisenhower spokesman on education matters, blamed the defeat on "hard-rock opposition" by some House members to all federal aid programs, the economy wave and the "lingering argument" left over the bill's fund distribution formula.

This dispute remained to the end because of Eisenhower's reluctance to fully support the compromise bill.

Taxi Driver Arraigned On Murder Charge

RIVERSIDE (AP) — Taxi driver William Joseph Alexander has been arraigned in Municipal Court on charges of murdering Ingemann Nick Ingvertsen near Lake Mathews Tuesday.

Ingvertsen's badly beaten body was discovered under some brush by a 6-year-old girl.

Alexander, originally arrested as a suspect in the slaying of two El Segundo policemen, admitted to Riverside County authorities that he bludgeoned Ingvertsen, 60, Baytown, Tex., with a bumper jack.

He said he had won $100 from Ingvertsen in a poker game and that during a drive near the lake, Ingvertsen began to argue about playing some more.

When they stopped to fix what he thought was a flat tire, Alexander said Ingvertsen kicked him. He said all he could remember after that was hitting the victim once with the jack.

Preliminary hearing was set for Aug. 1.

Woman Rescued From Bathtub After Eight Days

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A 74-year-old widow lay paralyzed in her bathtub for eight days because her neighbors were unable to hear her cries for help over the blare of the television set.

The widow, Mrs. Betty Schardt, was rescued Thursday night when neighbors noticed the pile of newspapers in front of her door. They called police who entered her house through a window.

Officers found Mrs. Schardt lying in the bathtub, muttering, "Thank God... please give me a drink of water."

Her Chihuahua dog Keenie gave a feeble yelp. He had no bark left.
